P.C.

1. By this application, the applicant seeks restoration of his writ petition No.6158/02. It was dismissed by a conditional order granting the petitioner four weeks to remove office objections. Inspite of that grant of time, nothing was done. Now four more weeks are claimed after restoration. It will be seen that the objections were such which could be removed within one day. It was not done for two years. In such circumstances the petitioner is not entitled to any more indulgence. C.A. rejected.
